ELKS PREPARING TO TEAR UP FIFTEEN CANDIDATES SOON

BIG PARADE WILL FEATURE FESTIVITIES THE THIRD AFTERNOON AND EVENING OF NEXT MONTH. REAL SHOW PROMISED.

On Friday evening, March 3, the Daytona lodge of Elks will have big doins.

Fifteen candidates will appear to get what's coming to them.

A big parade, one of the old-time affairs, will be "pulled off" in the afternoon. This parade will exceed Joe Coburn's imitation parade. It will have features hooked on to it that Coburn never thought of.

David Sholtz will lead this aggregation with his kazoo band. Saracina's band will discourse real music during such intervals as it may have the opportunity.

The candidates will all be decked out in the latest cut of garments. Some of the garments worn by candidates will be of real Parisian cut. The candidates will not wear these new-fangled garments from personal choice—it will be because they can't get out of them.

Then in the evening: This is the time the candidates will get their money's real worth. What they will miss in the initiation won't be worth speaking about. Geo. F. Crouch, the chief rooster of the Elks' aggregation, says nothing will be omitted in either the afternoon or evening performance.

Visiting Elks who are sojourning in the Daytona pasture are not invited but are commanded to hop onto the band-wagon and help make merry.

D. Perk. Smith says he will be up from New Smyrna for the suspicious occasion. Perk. is generally the chief ring master of the circus on occasions of this kind.

The committee on agony has not yet completed all arrangements for the entertainment of the fifteen candidates but the members of the committee are sitting up nights to devise plans.

H. H. Longenberg has arrived from St. Louis, to join his sister at the Princess Isseena.

5 STAGE PEOPLE DIE IN NEW YORK FIRE; 25 NARROW ESCAPES

TENDERLOIN BLAZE ATTRACTS THOUSANDS; CROWDS WATCH FLAMES FROM STREETS AND ROOF-TOPS.

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—One woman and four men lost their lives in a devastating fire which completely destroyed the theatrical boarding house at 155 West 44th street early today.

Thousands of on-lookers packed Broadway, Sixth avenue and several of the nearby cross streets and the police reserves were called out to keep the excited crowds from closing through the fire lines. Roof-tops of houses for many blocks were black with people watching the progress of the flames.

A thrilling rescue was effected by members of the department in bringing from the burning building 25 chorus girls and actors. One girl walked a twelve-inch ledge along the fourth story to the adjoining structure where she was dragged to safety. All those who perished were theatrical people.

BRITISH DINGLE;
ALL BUT ONE PERISH

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The British steamer, Dingle, with a displacement of 500 tons, is reported submerged. All members of the crew are thought to be lost, except one.

GERMANY AGAIN AT ODDS WITH BULGARIA

LONDON, Feb. 22.—The Rome wireless news agency today reported a fresh cause of friction has suddenly arisen between Germany and Bulgaria. The latter demands an increase of the Teutonic war subsidy to $50,000,000 per month.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Freebold and Dr. J. C. Jackson departed today for their homes in Fort Plain, N. Y. Mr. and Mrs. Freebold had been at Daytona Beach and Dr. Jackson was a guest at the Ivy Lane Inn, of this city, but roomed with Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Spring on Ivy Lane. The party have many friends here in the large Fort Plain contingent.

H. H. Longenberg has arrived from St. Louis, to join his sister at the Princess Isseena.

VILLA TROOPS MURDER AMERICAN AND FAMILY; BORDER FOLK ENRAGED

EL PASO, Feb. 22.—Another atrocity committed against humanity by the bandit murderer, Villa, strains the forbearance of the United States almost to the breaking point. It is reliably reported that a peaceful American and his wife and children have been slaughtered by former Villa soldiers at Cuscheri Riachie, Chihuahua. An unsigned message received here today confirms the belief of the El Paso citizens in the truth of the story. It is understood, the forces of Carranza garrisoned at Juarez are attempting an investigation.

Telegrams say that Villa is rapidly advancing upon Madura and the commandant there is asking for immediate aid. The bandit has cut all wire and railroad communications between the cities of Torren and Chihuahua.

GERARD BREAKS COLLAR
BONE; INJURES SIDE

LONDON, Feb. 22.—United States Ambassador Gerard, of Berlin, broke his collar bone and painfully injured his side while skiing in Munich Monday, according to an Exchange telegraph dispatch received here today.

30 DIE IN DISASTER

OF ZEPPELIN CRAFT

PARIS, Feb. 22.—It is reported that 30 charred bodies were found entangled in the wreckage of a Zeppelin, which was set afire and destroyed by French anti-aircraft guns last night.

The vessel was apparently on her way to attack Paris when she was shot down.

TURK TRANSPORTS ARE SUNK BY A BRITISH SUBMARINE

LONDON, Feb. 22.—It is reported from authentic sources here that a British submarine which recently passed through the Dardanelles successfully torpedoed and sunk six Turkish transports somewhere in the Bosphorus. The information was substantiated by the contents of a Reuter dispatch sent from Athens today. It is further understood the presence of the underwater craft created a panic in Constantinople.

WINTER VISITOR INJURED
BY FALL ON SIDEWALK

Mrs. B. W. Hapgood, of Boston, Mass., who is located at 28 Ivy Lane, in company with her daughter, Mrs. C. Hittinger, met with a painful accident at about 4 o'clock Monday afternoon, receiving a partial dislocation of her right shoulder and tearing loose the tendons. Mrs. Hapgood did not notice the elevation above the sidewalk in front of the Otis book store in the Geo. H. Clark building on South Beach street and in stepping from it to the sidewalk, lost her balance and fell, striking on her right shoulder. Dr. G. A. Klock was summoned, took the injured woman to her home and gave the injured shoulder the necessary treatment. At last reports Mrs. Hapgood was resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Many of the business places and also residences are displaying the "Stars and Stripes" today in honor of Washington's birthday.

GERMANS WIPE OUT FIRST LINE FRENCH TRENCHES; BIG LOSS

VERDUN THREATENED BY THE
TEUTONIC TROOPS — FRANCE
FACES WAR CRISIS IN ARTOIS
SECTION.

PARIS, Feb. 22.—It is reported here that the German troops have penetrated the first line of the French trenches over a half-mile front in the Givenchy forest, Artois region, but were later, partially driven back by a fierce counter-attack.

The war office made an official statement this morning admitting the progress of the Teutonic forces. The most severe attack followed a terrific bombardment by heavy guns which practically wiped out the French trenches. The Germans further succeeded in penetrating the Allies' works in the region of Verdun, but were forced back because of a hot shell fire.

It is further reported that the troops of the Kaiser have again resorted to the mass formation and their losses are consequently enormous. French military experts believe the object of the enemy is to capture Verdun and all attacks on the Belgian end of the line are simply to mask the real movement.

In the unlikely advent of the fall of Verdun, the French troops would be compelled to abandon Champagne, Muese, Oise and other important positions.

U. S. AMBASSADOR HERE
FROM CONSTANTINOPLE

NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—United States Ambassador Morgenthau arrived from Constantinople today on personal business and a pleasure trip. He was met half down the bay by a welcoming committee of 70 friends.

Ambassador Morgenthau stated frankly he had heard no news concerning the report that he was to succeed Garrison as secretary of war. He further attributed his success in relieving sufferers in Constantinople, to the support of President Wilson.

Mrs. H. P. Roberts and B. S. Thorpe, of Minneapolis, Minn., are among the recent guests registered at the Princess Isseena for an indefinite time.

U. S. AVIATION CORPS WORTHLESS; SWEEPING INVESTIGATION HINTED

COURT MARTIAL BRINGS TO LIGHT STARTLING LACK OF EFFICIENCY IN THE DEPARTMENT.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—A startling condition of affairs was brought to light through certain revelations of the court martial of Lieutenant Colonel Goodier. Officials claim the entire aviation service of the United States army is practically worthless and a sweeping investigation to probe the matter to the bottom seems certain, as a result of the radical information and testimony brought forward today.

Congress is thoroughly aroused to the enormity of the problem, but intends to secure all the facts before taking drastic action. The court martial of Lieutenant Colonel Samuel Reber, of the aviation corps, and the removal of Captain Cowan from command of the aviation school at San Diego, now seems probable. The evidence before the authorities charges Reber with "playing favorites" and exhibiting a lack of efficiency in his routine work.

MAYOR CRUMP RESIGNS
AFTER COURT DECISION

MEMPHIS, Feb. 22.—Mayor Crump resigned today. His resignation followed a decision rendered by the supreme court which stated he was entitled to office after January first, and caused considerable surprise. It is understood, further impeachment proceedings were being prepared by the citizens against Crump.

Mrs. I. F. Mack, of Sandusky, Ohio, a sister of Geo. H. Foote, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Foote at their winter home, corner of Ridgewood and Volusia avenues, having arrived recently from the North. Mrs. Mack will probably be here for the remainder of the season. Mr. Mack, now deceased, was a prominent citizen of Sandusky, being for many years editor of the Register of that city. He was a close personal friend of the late President William McKinley.

SHOULD REFRAIN FROM TALK WHEN BAND PLAYS

There is some complaint of persons talking during the playing of the band numbers at the concerts in Casino Burgoine to the annoyance of those who are more deeply interested in the music. It is probably a matter of thoughtlessness in most cases, but is one that needs correction. Proper silence should be maintained during the music, both in courtesy to the musicians and in respect of those who desire to give it their full attention.

A pair of horses, belonging to the Halifax Livery and Transfer company, attached to a 'bus, took fright Monday afternoon on Volusia avenue, between Ridgewood avenue and the railroad, when an automobile struck the 'bus and made a dash up First street to the livery barn. When close to the stables the 'bus crashed against a palmetto tree and the negro driver had a narrow escape from being crushed to death, but escaped with a lame shoulder and painful bruises.

child. While visiting and helping the poor, he meets and loves Emily Griswold. In his hard fighting life, he has seen little of women and Emily becomes his ideal.

When the situation of the Griswolds becomes desperate, they ask Regan to visit them. He comes and offers them relief through an amalgamation of interests. When questioned as to his reason for this leniency, when he has everything in his power, he tells them he wishes to try and win Emily for his wife, although she does not love him.

The Boss is accused of a murder he did not commit. When jail faces him his wife finds she really does love him and shoulder to shoulder they fight their way to success.

The five part Wm. A. Brady photo-play, "The Boss," is based upon the successful play of the same name, and will be shown at the Arcade theater today.

Michael Regan, of Irish descent, is a born fighter. This fighting instinct helps Regan to success. He becomes bartender, the saloon proprietor, then political Boss. Two of his best friends are Sullivan and McCoy. They have been boys together. Sullivan becomes a priest, and Porky McCoy becomes Regan's right hand man.

Regan becomes prominent in politics. He also buys up mortgages. His power increases as his field of labor widens. He gains the monopoly of the grain-shipping contracts which before his advent had been under the control of Griswold & Son, an old established firm. Old John Griswold and his son are on the brink of ruin.

Regan's is a two-sided nature. The man of iron, hard, merciless and a grafter, and the man who feeds the starving, would give his life for his friend and delight in the smile of a

COLBY, CARTOONIST.

Mr. Colby, the cartoonist, in appearance is almost the living image of the immortal Bill Nye. As he talks to his audience he transfers a variety of conceptions from his imaginative brain to the concrete form of crayon pictures. Some of his pictures are amusing; some, such as his landscape scenes, are as beautiful as paintings. Many corridors and classrooms in public school buildings in Chicago are ornamented with large crayon pictures that are souvenirs of George E. Colby's popular entertainment "New Ideas in Crayon."

The Chicago Tribune in speaking of Colby says that he is remarkable for combining in his treatment strength, sentiment, delicacy and a nameless charm. The Chicago News says, "Mr. Colby's talks are full of surprises, and one marvels at the sudden appearance of pictures both beautiful and comic as they come out of a mass of color and lines."

The most effective transformation that is attempted by Mr. Colby is that embodying the arousing of Mount Vesuvius from slumber to rage. He draws in colors of crayon illustrations of the famous mountain as viewed across the beautiful bay of Naples. The artist darkens the sky with a sudden brush of black smoke from the crater. This addition to the scene is quickly followed by the issuance of a stream of fire and lava, which pours over the bowl of the crater and down the mountain side. The picture is rapidly altered to display volcanic fire lighting up a cloudy sky and being reflected in the waters of the bay.

TIMES-UNION GIVES MCCOY BROS. BOOSTER

Yesterday's Times-Union has the following to say regarding McCoy's Bros. river trips:

"The Indian River line of steamers, operated by McCoy brothers, of Daytona, are now carrying fine loads of tourists every trip," says the Tiffsville Advocate. "The river is most interesting and the scenery diversified," adds the Advocate. "The banks are hung with coconut palms, date palms, palmettoes and mangoes, varicolored plumaged birds hover over the boats and the brilliant Florida sunshine is over all." This is reason enough, apparently, for a delightful trip, and no doubt the tourists pass the word along and help the business. The Indian river country is always beautiful and interesting.

ABOUT THAT CHURCH—

Last week we told you that they were organizing a Christian Science Society—it did not take them long to get started—a peculiar thing about Christian Scientists is that as soon as they begin to THINK about doing something, they get busy.

It is not all in the doing—it is the wanting to do a thing, the desire to help that counts, and every member of the Society is co-operating—that means an efficient organization.

The Church foundation has been started—the material for the building has been ordered, and they neither doubt, fear nor worry about the result—they know that the Church will be built, and RIGHT SOON.

SCHOOL NOTES

Professor H. Clay Marks, of the Daytona schools, has arranged to bring all the pupils of the schools to the health train, which arrives in Daytona today. Each room with its teacher accompanying, will visit the exhibition, and the students will be shown through, everything most carefully and minutely explained to them. The professor will allow about thirty minutes for each section of the school for this trip.

Washington's birthday is not a holiday in the Daytona schools, but Washington is always remembered in some way. Tuesday, at chapel, the exercises for Washington's birthday were most appropriate, instilling into the minds of the boys and girls the virtues of the "Father of His Country."

Safety First cards have been posted in all the rooms of the school, as well as in the corridors and the assembly hall. The cards were gotten up by Professor H. Clay Marks, and are most noteworthy and thoughtful. If heed is taken of these reminders, numbers of accidents will be avoided.

STATE BOARD HEALTH DEMONSTRATION TRAIN NOW HERE

Board of Health. It provides means by which the board may come into closest touch with the people of Florida, and may bring its campaign of practical education on health and sanitation to the people themselves. The campaign has been carried on for years by correspondence, by periodicals and special publications, through the press of the state, who always has been most hearty and liberal in its support of the work of the board.

All markets closed today.

Miss Grace Seward, of Guilford Conn., a cousin of Mrs. Frank Dittman, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dittman at their home on South Beach street, from Monday afternoon until this afternoon, when she departed on her return north. Miss Seward is said to be on a two weeks' vacation, and had been at Orlando before coming to Daytona.

THE WEATHER

Optimist Department, Devoted to Cheering Up "The Land of Sunshine."

Get! Here's a surprise for all you mortals. There isn't any weather report. This is George's birthday, and the government is taking a vacation. Now, far be it from my intention to disappoint anyone. After a long and careful study of the sky from the top of The Daily News building, during which performance the staff looked through many, many glasses (now don't go and suppose anything like that; it isn't so), we'd decided to announce the following forecast on our own entire responsibility:

FOR FLORIDA—Fair today throughout the entire state, except in the north, east, south and west sections, where it is not expected so fair—if it rains. Winds, very variable; temperature, about the same as it was six years ago at this time.

Get away from that! The dog had it first. Now never mind about the lack of a government weather report. Never ever mind about any troubles. Just smile and keep on smiling. Buy a funnel and let this filter through you:

SMILES.

The world's belated mortals, Are hunting for the light, That shines from glowing portals, On the road to fame and might.

They spend their hours striving, To make life seem worth while; And others live on, thriving, Because they smile and smile.

A smile is more than money, A smile is more than gold; 'Tis sweeter, far, than honey, It can't be bought or sold.

For men that smile through sadness, Are geniuses able to Turn badness into gladness, For all the world and you.

So always grin and play the game, And written on life's dial, You'll find your name marked down in fame: "The fellow with a smile!"

By Eugene Jones.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Katherine C. Ganley, Editor.

ENTERTAINED
DELIGHTFULLY IN HONOR OF THEIR GUESTS

Charmingly attractive was the card party which was given at the Palmetto clubhouse Monday afternoon by Mrs. T. F. Williams and her lovely daughter, Miss Dora, in honor of their guest, Miss Oreta Wood, of Tennyville, Ga.

The interior of the clubhouse was delightfully arranged with lovely green palms, bamboo stalks, and delicate similes with a profusion of pink carnations everywhere. Pink sweet peas in lovely flower bowls added to the beauty. A unique and pretty feature of the decoration was the lovely bed of pink carnations in which the cut-glass punch bowl was set upon a table covered with rich, glossy napery.

Auction and five hundred were played by the guests, eleven tables being devoted to auction, and six tables to five hundred. Most attractive hand-painted tallies were used for the game, the artistic work of Mrs. Williams. Auction prizes were given to Mrs. Harry Thompson, who received first; Mrs. E. T. Conrad, second; and Miss Margaret Reed, third, while at five hundred, Mrs. Gillespie of Pittsburgh, received first prize, and Miss Alyce Green, second. Miss Oreta Wood was awarded the guest prize.

After cards a number of friends came in, joining the other guests, for a social hour, during which a most delightfully dainty and attractive white ice course was served by the hostesses.

THE NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB HELD PLEASANT MEETING

After cards a number of friends came in, joining the other guests, for a social hour, during which a most delightfully dainty and attractive white ice course was served by the hostesses.

TOURISTS' CLUB MET ON MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Tourists' Club of St. Paul's church met Monday afternoon in the church hall on Myrtle avenue. Although the club has become a most popular thing, so many social affairs happening yesterday lessened the attendance; nevertheless, a goodly number was present.

Cards were enjoyed by the ladies, four tables being devoted to the game. Mrs. J. C. Howard was awarded the first prize, and Mrs. M. A. Dougherty, the second.

DR. J. M. THOMAS ADDRESSED
PARENT-TEACHERS' MEETING

The Parent-Teachers' Association met in the school auditorium Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and in the absence of the president and the vice-president, Professor H. Clay Marks, occupied the chair.

Business matters pertaining to the association were cared for, after which a piano selection was given by Miss Metzger.

Discussion was then in order regarding the examination and care of the teeth of the pupils, which was most favorably received. Miss Edith Newell, representing the civic department of the Palmetto club, stated that dentists of Daytona would work together helpers and citizens.

A series of stereoptican views were then given, showing the institute at Hampton, and the work that the school is doing, training colored individuals to scientifically farm, build houses, cook, wash and sew.

A liberal collection was taken up, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the Daytona Industrial school and hospital and the colored kindergarten.

The patronesses were: Mrs. M. L. Stanley, Mrs. Wm. Ruger, Mrs. Robert McKay, Mrs. E. L. King, Mrs. N. C. Sears, Mrs. J. E. Thompson, Mrs. T. F. Cordis, Mrs. Elmer Kipp, Mrs. John Uebelhoer, Mrs. J. D. Maley, Miss Dorothy Martyn, Mrs. C. M. Wilder, Mrs. C. E. Starr, Miss Margaret Rhodes, Mrs. L. H. Robbins, Mrs. J. W. Shields, Mrs. J. C. Howard, Mrs. Margaret Jackman and Mrs. Ella L. O'Neill.

The Neighborhood club, which is composed of eight of Daytona's society girls, met Monday evening at the home of Miss Lee Bowers at the Magnolia hotel on North Ridgewood avenue. This newly formed card club has become a most popular attraction for its members, and all look forward to its meetings, each young lady entertaining in turn.

Auction was the form of cards, and was played with a vim by the girls, who are all very skillful in the art. Miss Daisy Schmadeke, however, received the highest score, and was awarded the prize.

Dainty and delicious refreshments were served by the charming hostess.

Miss Haskell, of Bloomfield, N. J., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Frank W. Haskell, of 384 South Beach street.

gether with the school board, hastening the careful inspection of the students' teeth, and hinder the school work as little as possible. A motion for the procedure was then made by the association.

Dr. J. M. Thomas, of Middlebury college, at Middlebury, Vermont, was then introduced by Professor Marks, and gave a most able and interesting talk upon schools, and education of pupils. This learned man is much in favor of summer schools with less vacation than is generally allowed, and strongly favors shorter terms for the primary departments and longer for the high school classes.

Every day is summer in Daytona.

YOUNG PEOPLE INVITED TO ATTEND MEETING

All young people, not under 14 years of age, are invited to attend a meeting of the young people's branch of the temperance work, which will be held in the Sunday school rooms of the First Baptist church Thursday evening, February 24th, at 8:00 o'clock. This is interdenominational.

Mrs. Henry Gabeler, who came to Daytona just before the holidays and has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. H. Gabeler at their winter home on Cypress street, left Monday on her return to Worcester, Mass., being called home by the illness of her husband, who is a cousin of Dr. Gabeler.

HOLLAND FEARS JAPAN WILL ATTACK ASIATIC COLONIES OF DUTCH

THE HAGUE, Feb. 22.—The conservative party, since 1913 in opposition to the government, and a large section of other parties, are fighting strongly for a bill recently introduced into the parliament providing a great navy to defend the Dutch East Indies.

In Java, Sumatra and other islands, Holland has a population eight times as great as that of the home country. It is a rich prize, inadequately defended. The proposed measure would put a special tax on all persons possessing more than $22,000 in property or an equivalent income. The money obtained would go to build an East Indian fleet to contain eventually six dreadnaughts.

Before the great war, Great Britain and Germany would never have allowed Japan to get a foothold in the Dutch possessions. With the great nations of Europe now preoccupied, the only help the Dutch could look for in the face of a Japanese attack would come from Australia or the United States.

Neither the Philippines nor North Australia would be secure with a Japanese base in Java. If the United States retire from the Philippines in 1921 one possible is lost.

The greatest living expert in the government of Malay races is Hendrik Colijn, ex-Dutch minister of war, who spent twenty years in the Orient. In an interview to send to an American correspondent:

"If your congress passes the Jones bill with the Clark amendment, giving independence to the Philippines in 1921, there will be serious consequences in the possessions of European powers all over the Orient.

"The movement of 'Asia for the Asiatics' is gathering force, and as the strongest Oriental power the nationalists throughout the East look to Japan as the natural leader.

"Filipino native government would be a failure, not because the natives lack education, but because they lack character. We are gradually introducing self-government into Java, beginning with village government. But full self government, such as is seen in Canada, will not come for many years, perhaps fifty, perhaps a hundred.

"If America set the example of giving independence to her Asiatic possessions the nationalists in other European colonies would at once begin to chafe under their own restrictions, and there might be a good deal of trouble in more places than one."

MIDWAY CRAP GAME COSTS 3 PLAYERS $13

Three gentlemen of color found their way to the mayor's court this morning at 9:00 o'clock to answer to the charge of gambling on Sunday on the public highway of Midway. R. E. Reach, Earnest White and Sam Adams all plead guilty.

White and Adams had before been dragged up to the mighty seat of justice for a like offense. They were fined $5.00 apiece or 10 days in jail. Reach proved himself to be a new disciple in crime and received mercy at the hands of the court. His fine amounted to but $2.00.

In other words, the crap game cost the trio exactly $13, which is some crap game for Midway.

RETIRED COMMANDER, U. S. N., HERE ABOARD "PEG-O'-MY-HEART"

BELIEVES IN THROWING OPEN
ANNAPOLIS AND WEST POINT TO THE PUBLIC, "BUT MUST NOT OVERCROWD THEM."

The Elco cruiser "Peg O'My-Heart," 45 feet over all, of the raised deck type, and fitted with handsomely equipped cabins fore and aft, tied up at the Yacht Club dock late Sunday night. She is owned by a retired commander, C. P. Eaton, of the United States navy who, with his wife, has spent the best part of this last year aboard.

She is driven by a 35-horsepower Standard motor, is lighted with electricity, and comfortably sleeps four persons. She carries a dingy on the port side, and has a large bridge deck and an after deck with wicker chairs.

Retired Commander C. P. Eaton, of Jersey City, is a member of the New York Yacht Club and an enthusiastic yachtsman. He spent some time last summer on Lake Champlain exploring the pretty sheet of water in "Peg-O'-My-Heart." He sailed for Florida on the 23d of September, 1915, stopping at many points along the coast.

The cruiser is now on her way home after visiting Palm Beach, Rockledge and other towns on the Indian River. She will remain here about a week. Retired Commander Eaton made the remark that Daytona was one of the prettiest towns in the state, and added, with no little fervor: "We enjoy tying up at the club dock. It is so convenient. We have received such courtesy at the hands of the employees and members, and the spot is so accessible to the town."

Eaton's Preparedness Theory.

When asked concerning his views on the proposed opening of Annapolis and West Point to the public, he said: "I believe in it to a reasonable extent. This country needs a larger Annapolis and a larger West Point, but the authorities must be careful not to place too many pupils under a single instructor. Such a condition handicaps all concerned."

THOSE OBNOXIOUS SIGN-BOARDS

Editor of the Daytona News:

Am glad to note in your last night's issue the interest you take in the civic betterment of Daytona, broadly speaking. The sign boards should be done away with.

There is something in which I should like to interest the taxpayers of Daytona, however. It is the needless and extravagant waste of electricity.

As I look over, at any time during the night, Beach street is a blaze of light. Of course, we appreciate those lights. I wish Daytonaites would often cross the river to get the lights and reflections from dusk to dark, but after ten o'clock, is it necessary to keep all those lights burning?

I can give you a list of towns in Central New York far livelier than Daytona, whose three and five branch illuminations are turned off at ten o'clock, only single lights being left burning during the night. Surely, Daytona was equipped with these lights before the new ones were put in last year, or the top lights of each cluster might be left.

I must say, it seems to us Northerners a prodigal use of city funds to keep up such lighting all night.

INTERESTED SPECTATOR,
Daytona Beach.

Editor Daily News:

I was pleased to read the protest against the signboards as published in your paper Saturday.

In the North, we are now and have been for sometime, spending the taxpayers' good money to remove this piker form of advertising. They are considered a "scab on the landscape."

I not only would do no business with a bank, but would include any hotel or garage that daub up the fields and roadsides with these nuisances.

I wonder if the ferryman realizes what a jar the new tourist gets after absorbing the beauties of Volusia avenue, including the home of the Elks, to have the exquisite view of the dreamy Halifax destroyed by a big board sign? A much smaller one, of Colonial type, would announce the same facts to the public and be appreciated.

Advertising is the proper thing, but the people have been trained to look to the newspapers for such information.

Yours truly,

—VISITOR.

Both Imaginary.

Some of the cures for human ailments are imaginary, but so are a lot of the ailments.

L. & N. RAILROAD
OFFICE IN DAYTONA

The Louisville & Nashville railway has opened an office in the Collins' Information Bureau, on South Beach street, with F. E. Weiss, traveling passenger agent, in charge. Mr. Weiss is from Detroit, Mich., and is here for the balance of the season, accompanied by his mother and sister. They have rented a cottage at 215 Orange avenue.

H. C. Bretney, Florida passenger agent for the L. & N., was in Daytona today assisting Mr. Weiss in getting his office established.

A man is pretty lucky when he is so easily amused that his idea of a good time is to go into the country, put on a funny hat and have his picture taken.

TRAVEL PRESAGES
A LATE SEASON

The steamer Constitution, of the McCoy Brothers' line, brought a number of passengers from the south Monday evening, and on her departure south this morning had a passenger list of between 40 and 50, showing that the travel is still moving strongly both ways. This is also evident in the travel by rail, the F. E. C. railway trains being well filled with southbound passengers, although the return travel from the south set in two weeks or more ago. The heavy travel from the north at this time probably presages a late season this year.
